

Opportunity	Times	Description
Joining 'Open' Volunteering Days	Planned dates during our service shutdown - please contact us for dates	As part of the transformation we have planned dates that anyone can join, with a variety of tasks such as painting and gardening depending on the different stages of our transformation. Please let us know if you would be interested to join our Volunteer Days email list.
Volunteer Day at our Footprints Centre	During our service shutdown - flexible dates	If a team are interested to volunteer together we would love to be as flexible as possible and to organise a date around when could work well for you.
Support at Events	Ad hoc dates	Throughout the year where volunteering support can make a huge difference. Here are some examples: Lark in the Park, Robin Hood Half and Mini Marathon marshals or cheer squad, Families Christmas Party.
Positive Playmates	Regular and flexible to suit availability	Befriending service where anyone aged 13 and above can volunteer to play with and entertain a child (under 16) in their own home for an hour a week or more. One parent will always be in the home to provide any care necessary; the volunteer's job is simply to play! Please email Lucie at playmates@footprintscec.org for more information.
Support in our Conductive Education or Speech and Language Sessions	Placements and Work Experience	Support in our Conductive Education or Speech and Language Sessions: There is an application process as spaces are limited and there is a high demand for placement opportunities in our sessions.
Families Coffee Mornings	Please contact us for dates	Welcome families or support making tea and coffees with the children and families we work with.
Community Inclusion Coffee Bar	Ad hoc or weekly	Support at events or regular volunteering through the Pulp & Prints Team working with the Pulp Friction Members.
Support Volunteer	Flexible	We can design a role tailored to your skillset and availability. For example volunteers supporting with projects such as our Amazon Wishlist, our Vinted Store, or reaching out to ask for raffle prizes to help us raise funds.
