

It needn't be your plan 'B'

It Needn't Be Your Plan B.

Our experience of delivering an in-house
Conductor's Assistant training programme.

Kirsten Bairstow-Robb

Jo Garwood

Karen Whitehall

Our Journey

FOOTPRINTS
CONDUCTIVE EDUCATION CENTRE
Empowering families with disabled children

Why not Nottingham?

- Location
- Salary
- Package

What do we do?

ocn

WEST MIDLANDS REGION

FOOTPRINTS
CONDUCTIVE EDUCATION CENTRE
Empowering families with disabled children

Conductor's Assistant Course

Started in June 2017

- Trustees
- Friends
- Colleagues

- Planned to finish Oct 2018

- Pre-prepared course with all of the materials you need

Challenges

- Finding time to do the training
- Resourcing the training from a staffing point of view
- Time taken to mark assignments /write assignments etc

Benefits

- All staff have the same level of training as a minimum
- Level 3 qualification
- Extra help from trainees in group
- Good refresher for all staff
- Generates revenue
- A means of broadening the audience for CE (putting on workshops for trustees etc)
- Deliver at a pace that suits yourself/organisation
- Help at hand through NICE staff.
- CPD

Feedback from course participants

